THE HARDMAN PHILIPS HOUSE
Philipsburg, Centre County, Pennsylvania

Owner: Miss Julia Hale.

Date of Erection: 1813.

Present Condition: Good; much of original house remains.

Number of Stories: Two and attic and cellar.

Materials of Construction: Stone foundations; exterior walls plastered on wood; shingle gambrel roof, originally pitch roof.

Other Existing Records: None known.

Additional Data: In the present living and dining rooms used to be dividing partitions, making four rooms altogether. The largest addition to the house is the wing with the billiard room, office and vault downstairs, and the large bedroom and dressing room upstairs. A smaller addition is the space now taken out of the rear porch and used downstairs as the writing room and upstairs as the radio room.

Source: Miss Julia Hale, owner.
